Curl up or get spiked

One year on: kids' stylist makes it a family affair

ON Sunday, December 3rd Spikes and Curls, in Downing Street, Farnham, will be one year old.

To celebrate the event a party atmosphere will prevail the day before, on Saturday December 2nd. Kirstie Stone, one of the two owners of this hairdressing salon which is solely for children, said that the first year had been great fun and that it had been really enjoyable to see families, as well as just children, get bigger.

"Mia and her son, Harry, were our first clients when we opened," Kirstie continued, "and Mia was pregnant then. She had the baby and we've watched it grow as well as Harry."

At Spikes and Curls a number of unusual services are provided, specifically with children in mind. There are novelty chairs in the shapes of an aeroplane and fire engine, in which children can sit and a again over the Christmas holiday period in another event just for children.

In the meantime, though, there will be plenty more shampoos, trims, cuts and styling to carry out on the town's younger members before the balloons and merriment of the birthday take over. For further details please ring 01252 711121.

A SOUND of Music singalong will take place at Farnham Maltings on November 3rd at 7pm. Dress up as a guitar-wielding nun or one of the Von Trapp family members, and then join with others to sing the songs from the classic film. Further details about this unusual evening can be found on www.singalongs.net and tickets can be obtained by ringing 01252 726234.
